

Is Your Website HIPAA - Compliant?

Does your website perform automatic backups? Can these backups be restored at any time?

Does your website secure transmitted data with encryption?

Does your website protect stored data with encryption?

Can your website's data be accessed solely by those with authorization?

Are HIPAA Business Associate Agreements in place with all third parties who have access to PHI, including your web hosting and email providers?

Does the server that hosts your website meet the security rules outlined by HIPAA?

Does your website contain a HIPAA policy?

Does your website still have a valid SSL certificate?

Do your web forms meet HIPAA compliance requirements?

Have you established access control protocols?

Do you have a system for recording and monitoring logs?

Do you have procedures and policies for handling data restoration and deletion?

Have you secured consent from patients prior to sharing testimonials on your website?

Does your website have a displayed notice of privacy policy?